Re: Grant Request

HES would like to have a celebration of engineering in February of 2020. We will host an “Engineering Week” in which each class will do a special engineering lesson. Kindergarten through second grade would like to read a picture book and then have the kids work on engineering challenges. Third through fifth grade are going to arrange for a parent who is an engineer to come and speak to the class, followed by an engineering project.

I am asking the Harvard PTO to consider funding these activities with a $580 grant.

All classes will be working on projects from this web site.
https://frugalfun4boys.com/4-engineering-challenges-kids/ We will share supplies between classes. The supplies can be reused for many future projects. We would need the following -

- 12 copies of the book Dreaming Up, A Celebration of Building, by Christy Hale
  12 x $15 = $180
- 2 boxes of 500 craft sticks
  2 x $10 = $20
- 1200 16oz Plastic Cups
  6 x $38 = $228
- 800 1” wooden color cube blocks
  8 x $19 = $152
  Total = $580

Superintendent’s Update
November 12, 2019

I. Start Time Advisory Met Again
Standard IV: Professional Culture

The advisory group met and finalized an initial survey to be used at the upcoming parent conferences. Members of the advisory will be gathering information and passing out research articles at tables in the lobbies of both schools. Meanwhile I am in communication with the bus company about the cost of different scenarios. Also, I wrote a Chalk Talk about the issue and invited members of the public to join me at the General Store for a discussion on November 20th at 9 AM.

II. Dashboard Training
Standard I: Instructional Leadership

The early release time on October 31st gave us the chance to introduce the teachers to the data in the district warehouse. After hearing an introduction to the potential use of the data and reasons for the districts’ use of this tool, teachers self-selected different levels of training in facilitated sessions. They ran queries and discussed ways for their departments or grade levels to use the data for individual students growth and overall curriculum changes and adjustments.

III. Tri-District Professional Development
Standard I: Instructional Leadership, Standard IV: Professional Culture

For the third year, we collaborated together with Littleton and Ayer-Shirley for professional development on election day. Throughout the year, the district leaders gather together to plan the day around a joint theme, incorporating the feedback from prior years. On a rating scale of 1 – 5 (5 being the most valuable) 198 teachers out of 235 rated the day a 4 or 5 (84%). Here are some of the comments we collected:

Thank you! I’m excited about some of the tools I learned in the sessions and looking forward to implementing them in the classroom.

I thought it was a very well organized, helpful, and motivating day. I liked the course selection.

I really enjoyed meeting with and presenting to my colleagues. I felt encouraged and inspired to continue the work of making the kind of change that will impact students in the broadest and deepest ways.

Thank you for organizing this day. It was positive and meaningful.

The pacing was great. There was enough choice and opportunity to collaborate. I loved the theme, which was open enough to meet a lot of interests (not only technology).

IV. Budget Meetings with Cost Center Managers
Standard II: Management and Operations

We met with cost center managers at Upper Town Hall to encourage attendance by other SC members and members of other committees and the public. There were pros and cons to this effort and I would welcome members feedback on this. The pros were that the setting encouraged attendance and committee members were invited from across town government. The cons were that members who attended were unable to ask questions directly, the setting was less convenient for managers, and the formality made discussions less natural. Should we continue this practice, modify it to something else, or go back to the previous way?

V. Preschool Teacher Hired
Standard II: Management and Operations

We hired a preschool teacher to begin with us in January. Megan has over five years of experience and made the hard decision to leave her current position half way through the year to come to work in Harvard. She was the strongest candidate who secured our decision when we watched her teach a whole group lesson and work with a small group of our current preschool students. Her resume is attached.

VI. Superintendent Group Met
Standard IV: Professional Culture

A small group of superintendents in the area met for the first of monthly meetings. This support group provides an opportunity for us to discuss and collaborate on complex district issues in a safe space. Two facilitators offer wisdom and provide a broader context.

VII. Students Shine!

There has been much to celebrate for students in the past two weeks. The drama productions at both HES and Bromfield gave our students the opportunity to shine! Both shows were amazing with convincing acting, beautiful singing, quality sets, and evidence of lots of practice and effort. These programs allow our student to pursue their individual dreams.

Also, our student athletes worked hard in post season successes. The varsity girls’ and boys’ soccer teams advanced to the finals in hard fought wins. The girls’ cross country team and one member of the boys’ team advanced to state’s.
Memo: Revolving Account Transfer Request
Date: November 12, 2019
From: Linda Dwight, Superintendent

I am requesting that the School Committee transfer 100K into the lunch account and 50K into the athletic account, temporarily to be repaid as revenues enter the accounts throughout the year. These two cost centers struggle with deficits due to the delayed payments into their areas of the budget. The lunch account and athletic account count on collected revenues, and in the case of the lunch program, federal and state reimbursements.

We received the following e-mail from the Finance Director, Lori Bolasevich, on November 7, 2019:

The invoices have been processed - please see attached document from Dept of Revenue - 3rd paragraph at top of Page 1: "The board or officer with authority to spend from a revolving fund can only incur liabilities and spend from the available, unspent and unencumbered balance of actual collections"

A transfer needs to be done now in order to keep paying payroll and bills because there are no "available" funds from "actual collections" - at year-end you can reconcile the fund by transferring money back to the source you'll borrow from if there's any extra left.

*Thank you,
Lori*
File: JB - EQUAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

In recognition of the diversified characteristics and needs of our students and with the keen desire to be responsive to them, the School Committee will make every effort to protect the dignity of the students as individuals. It also will offer careful consideration and sympathetic understanding of their personal feelings, particularly with reference to their race, color, sex, gender identity, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, homeless status, physical and intellectual differences, pregnancy or pregnancy related condition.

To accomplish this, the School Committee and its staff will make every effort to comply with the letter and the spirit of the Massachusetts equal educational opportunities law which prohibits discrimination in public school admissions and programs.

This will mean that every student will be given equal opportunity in school admission, admissions to courses, course content, support services, and extracurricular and athletic activities.

All implementing provisions issued by the Board of Elementary and Secondary Education in compliance with this law will be followed.

They are planning to meet with the Board of Selectmen at the later part of November. At Special Town Meeting, Parks and Rec put forth an article for $15K to provide general field maintenance. Suzanne Allen reported that the Start Time Subcommittee meets tomorrow. It is exciting to be working on the details of how we will communicate and get feedback from community members regarding a possible change.
Suzanne Allen reported that she, John Ruark, and Shannon Molloy met with five members of the Student Advisory Committee. Students gave feedback about the Angst move. Members lead a discuss into real life skills/solutions for anxiety. Student talked about the new attendance policy and although they were skeptical at first, it seems to be working out. Students were positive about the plans to rebuild the Middle School ramp.

John Ruark – the students want to make sure there is ongoing discussion around anxiety and that it won’t end with the movie. Students feel that the new attendance policy wasn’t communicated well. They feel as though the changes/expectations should be announced in layman’s terms with some startup efforts to streamline any bugs in the system.

SusanMary Redinger reported that School Council met on October 16th. Scott Hoffman gave an update of all things happening at Bromfield including sporting events. The ramp was well received. More conversation about the Angst movie. The conversation is making the topic relevant. People appreciated the board of experts at the end of the movie.
